Advice to Recipients of Copy of Notice of Appeal

How to become a Party to Proceedings

You may be a party to the appeal if:

Within 15 working days after the period for lodging a notice of appeal ends, lodge a notice of your wish to be a party to the proceedings (in form 33) with the Environment Court and serve copies of your notice on the relevant local authority and the appellant; and

Within 20 working days after the period for lodging a notice of appeal ends, serve copies of your notice on all other parties in accordance with the requirements below.

Your right to be a party to the proceedings in the court may be limited by the trade competition provisions in section 274(1) and Part 11A of the Resource Management Act 1991.

You may apply to the Environment Court under section 281 of the Resource Management Act 1991 for a waiver of the above timing or service requirements (see form 38).

Service Requirements in Accordance with ENV-2018-CHC-24

Section 274 notices must be lodged with the court electronically by email to Christine.McKee@justive.govt.nz in accordance with the standard requirements set out in the Resource Management Act 1991 and the Resource Management (Forms, Fees, and Procedure) Regulations 2003.

The requirement relating to the service of section 274 notices have been altered to the effect that:

Section 274 notices must be served on the Council electronically by email to dpappeals@qldc.govt.nz and on the appellant; and

Service of section 274 notices on “all other parties” will be deemed to be effected to the Council uploading copies of section 274 notices received onto its website.
